WITHOUT ADVENTURE... WHAT IS LIFE?

Morocco Rafting Adventure

Basking in the warm sunshine as you drift downstream, encircled by an endless array of sun-kissed red mountains, surrounded by exhilarating crystal clear whitewater. This is Morocco, the perfect remedy to warm up your winter goose pimples, heading south for some sun and wet fun! With a chance to also enjoy the charms of the imperial city of Marrakech and perhaps a visit to the Sahara, Morocco is certainly a land full of contrasts. Adults and children alike love this trip, so pack your bags and have a great sunny adventure.

Your Itinerary

Day 1:

Flights generally arrive into Marrakech in the evening. You will be met at the airport by one of the guides who will take you to your hotel and make sure that you get settled in nice and comfy. Then it's out to explore the local culture and restaurants.

(No Meals Included)

Day 2:

We enjoy a hearty breakfast at our hotel, and then board our 4 wheel drive vehicles bound for the heart of the Atlas Mountains. We drive from Marrakech northward toward the middle Atlas Mountains. We stop in stunning olive groves for a sumptuous lunch and drive towards Tilouguite pausing to take in the view as we cross this picturesque mountain range. We cross the river just past Tilouguite and drive a little further to one of the fantastic campsites. We will dine in style with the stunning scenery as the perfect backdrop.

Day 3:

We give you a thorough safety briefing and also practice our paddling techniques before tackling our first rafting of the trip. Depending on flows this can be a fun technical river or big volume and bouncy! We paddle through the narrows in Tilouguite with delightful locals jumping into the river and waving us on our way. We camp amongst cedar trees at 'Barking Dog' camp. The afternoon is yours to explore the nearby mountains, relax or have a game of volleyball on the beach.

Day 4:

Today sees more roller coaster rapids as we head down the river and discover the majestic beauty of this land. Some great fun waves today. Our day is nicely interrupted with a relaxing lunch, accompanied by the locals churning wheat at local waterwheels. The water here is crystal clear and we will pack our fishing rods, to try our luck with catching fresh fish for dinner tonight. We raft around 4-5 hours per day, leaving plenty of time to go and explore nearby villages, or just sit around with your fellow paddlers and discuss the day!

Day 5:

It is great to remember where we are on the edge of the Sahara, in this crystal clear river, tackling the best whitewater that Morocco has to offer. Rapids come thick and fast on this river, but what a great way, and a fantastic place to hone your skills! After a lunch full of the fresh foods Morocco has to offer, we walk up the valley to a nearby Kasbah, as we relax and sample Moroccan hospitality. We raft down river to camp in the stunning last gorge of this river journey and recount the day's tales whilst sampling a Rum Punch or two!

(Included: All meals Days 2 to 5)

Day 6:

On the last day we finish off with a few fun rapids and then paddle towards Lake Bin El Ouidane where we will raft all the boats up together and motor across the lake to our waiting vehicle. Great way to relax with a chilled beer! We drive back to Marrakech for the evening and enjoy our first chance to explore the souks.
(Included: Breakfast and Lunch)

Day 7:

The focal point of Marrakech is the Djemaa el Fna, a huge square in the old part of town. Although it is a lively place at any time of day it really comes into its own in the evening. Rows of open air food stalls are set up and mouth watering aromas fill the square. Jugglers, story tellers, snake charmers, magicians and acrobats take over the rest of the space, each surrounded by fascinated spectators.
(Included: Breakfast)

Day 8:

Flights normally leave Marrakech around midday, so a chance for some last minute shopping and then we pack up and head straight back to the airport to catch our flights home.
(Included: Breakfast)

Holiday Options

So, not quite ready to return to London or the USA and want to explore the wonders of Mystical Morocco a little further? Read on as we will send you to explore some exciting or perhaps more sedentary activities for you to top off your great adventure with us. If you would like further details on this please feel free to contact us here or perhaps check out the Lonely Planet on Morocco.

Hiking and Trekking

With its four mountain Ranges, a dozen summits over 4000 metres high, 400 over 3000 metres, and all of them accessible to people in good physical condition, Morocco offers exceptional hiking opportunities. The Moroccan mountains are beautiful and wild, yet they are well organised for hikers with qualified guides, should you require them.

Sporting Facilities

Whatever your sporting preference, whether it be a relaxing game of golf, perhaps a quiet horse ride, or even a windsurf or kitesurf on the Atlantic Coast, there are plenty of activities to satisfy the most avid sporting buff!

The Sahara

Perhaps we can tempt you with a trip to the sands of the Sahara desert. Leave from Ouarzazate or Er Rachidia to discover the Moroccan deep south. Burning sands, snowy peaks and plunging canyons along the Draa, Dades and Ziz Valleys, and everywhere the sumptuous Kasbahs - fairytale cities built of earth. People come to Morocco just to do this Sahara trip.

Life's A Beach!

Okay, so you've had the active part of your holiday and you just want to take it easy enjoying the gorgeous beaches that adorn the Mediterranean and Atlantic coasts of Morocco.

Agadir and the Souss is a great area for those who love holidays by the sea with all the extras. You will find a sublime beach 10 kilometres long in Agadir, with first rate hotels (cheaper options too) and all the sports facilities and night-time entertainment to conclude your trip to Mystical Morocco!

There are plenty of other activities from hot air balloon rides to relaxing in the soothing waters of Moulay Yacoub in a health spa. Whatever you are interested in we will try and provide details and make reservations for you. Just remember that Moroccan tourist areas are very popular destinations and things do book up well in advance.

The Details

What Is Included?

- Transfers to and from Marrakech Airport to the hotel. If you provide us with your arrival details we will meet you at the airport. We request that you are there on Day 1, the day before your rafting trip departs (as described above).
- Accommodation the night before and for 2 nights after the river trip in a tourist hotel. This will be on a share twin basis with somebody else on the trip.
- All transfers to and from the river.
- All meals from breakfast on Day 2 to lunch on Day 6, with breakfast Days 7 and 8. We can cater for any dietary requests, just let us know.
- All rafting equipment, including the best in buoyancy aids, helmets and spray jackets.
- Tented accommodation whilst on the river.
- All camping equipment including thermarest style mattresses and chairs (sleeping bags excluded).
- Qualified and experienced guides. We have a mixture of local and overseas guides who are extremely professional and are some of the most experienced guides in the world. These guys and girls make every effort to make your trip memorable and fun for you whilst at the same time ensuring your safety. They all hold advanced first aid qualifications and in the unlikely event of an injury they have the expertise and professionalism to deal with it.
- All necessary permits and licenses.
- A very cool AdventureX T-shirt!

Please Note: Not included are flights, visas, departure taxes, travel insurance, inoculations, sleeping bags, DVD of your trip, alcohol, personal items or gratuities. You will also need to budget for meals in town which are not included in the price and any extra accommodation outside what is provided.

Getting There and Away:

If you have any queries or need a hand at all in arranging your flights, please give us a shout. There are multiple options including Royal Air Maroc out of Heathrow, or even Easy jet for a cheap and easy flight. The return flight is a morning departure out of Marrakech with an afternoon arrival into Heathrow.

There are lots of options available so be it a flight from another airport in the UK, Europe or USA we will give you advice on what is the best deal around and help you with your booking.

Visa Requirements:

Normally you can enter Morocco with a minimum of formalities. Visas are not required for British citizens – however if you are of any other origin please contact us as an entry visa from the Moroccan Embassy may be required. A passport valid for at least 6 months is required for entry.

Jabs:

Morocco is relatively disease free, although Certificates of Inoculation for Cholera are required by those travellers arriving from infected areas. No other vaccinations are compulsory, although we would recommend consulting your GP or specialist vaccination centre. They may suggest that you get up to date against Polio and Tetanus.

You should take care when drinking water especially ice. Reputable brands of sealed bottled water are usually fine, just make sure they are sealed! All the water on the rafting trip is treated so you won't have to worry there, but just keep an eye on it when we are in towns! Anti malarial medication is not necessary.

Exchange Rates:

The current rates for the American dollar to the Moroccan Dirham is around 1:9 and for the GBP to the Moroccan Dirham is around 1:16. So the place remains quite good value. However prices generally vary between the local and tourist price. To give you idea how far your money will go, a meal in a medium range restaurant will cost around Dr70 and a more upmarket place for around Dr150 including wine. You can easily exchange money in banks. Tipping and bargaining are an integral part of Moroccan life. Generally a 10% tip should be left after a meal. Bargaining is great fun and generally a very social event in Morocco, with the merchant generally sitting down and enjoying a cup of the traditional mint tea with you.

Retail Therapy Options:

Strolling through the souks is a wonderful feast for the senses. Whether you are looking for a ring, a carpet, a pair of slippers or a wicker basket, it will certainly be a rewarding and humorous experience. Every region has its specialties and the markets are packed full of craft souks.

Climate:

The geological variety of Morocco gives a wide range of climatic conditions. Be prepared, because almost anything can happen. As we are rafting in the Atlas Mountains, it can get cool in the evening and it is a good idea to bring a reasonably warm sleeping bag and also a fleece jacket and some long pants. During the day temperatures are relatively warm whilst we are on the river and normal rafting attire with shorts and sandals will be fine. We provide you with a warm spray jacket but you can also put a thermal top on if you are susceptible to feeling the cold. On average at this time of year you can expect temperatures of 24 - 32 degrees Celsius. Rain is also a possibility although not likely. You can bring a light jacket if you wish although many of our clients use our spray jackets.

Fitness and Safety:

There are no special fitness requirements for this Rafting trip, the main thing recommended is a sense of adventure! The minimum age for this trip is 6 years and there is no upper age limit providing that you are in reasonable physical shape and you are aware of the rigours of a whitewater expedition in a foreign country. Please make a point of telling us if you have any medical conditions or allergies or are on any medication that you think we should be aware of. Safety is our foremost consideration at all times whether on or off the river. We are out there for a great time and we want you to feel comfortable in your new environment.

Dress Code:

The dress code in and around the town of Marrakech remains fairly casual. Lightweight casual clothes are recommended during the day. On the river you require little more than a bathing costume and a pair of shorts. Bring thermals to wear for the cooler days. We also recommend a pair of Teva sandals or the like that will stay attached to your feet. Women should be aware that in country areas they should keep their legs, shoulders and upper arms covered and avoid skin tight clothing as this will attract unwanted attention and is considered inappropriate wear in the Muslim religion.

Personal Equipment:

After years on the river the guides have found exactly what is necessary to feel comfortable rafting by day, cosy around the camp at night and totally in style in town before and after the trip. Therefore our equipment list will mean that you will be perfectly attired and outfitted for your whole trip and well under the baggage allowance. A full list of what we recommend will be sent to you after your booking confirmation. We find that most people already have in their possession what is needed for a rafting trip and very little if anything in specialised equipment needs to be bought.

Finally...

Please remember that things do change, prices go up and down, activities stop running or change format and weather can send the best laid plans out the door. AdventureX will do its best to provide what is described above but please take into consideration the nature of the journey that you are embarking on and the country that you are travelling in and understand that a certain degree of flexibility is necessary!

Morocco has something to offer everybody - great whitewater, gorgeous scenery all topped off with the charming people and history of this fascinating land. This is a brilliant trip for people of all ages and we look forward to seeing you there!
